

TUDOR HD 12V 180Ah Starter Battery

Battery / Accu | TUDOR | TG1806

1000A cold-cranking power ensures heavy-duty engines start reliably in challenging conditions, minimizing downtime. This robust lead-acid battery provides sustained power delivery and resilience for commercial trucks, buses, and agricultural machinery.

Features

- Delivering 1000A of cold-cranking power, this battery ensures your heavy-duty engines start reliably in the most challenging conditions, minimizing downtime and keeping your operations moving.
- Specifically engineered for heavy-duty applications, it is the ideal power source for commercial trucks, buses, construction vehicles, and agricultural machinery.
- Utilizing robust lead-acid technology, the TUDOR HD battery provides sustained power delivery and resilience against the demanding cycles of heavy-duty use.
- Designed to meet stringent performance requirements, it offers excellent vibration resistance and a stable power output crucial for mobile industrial environments.
